3. The expenses incurred by the Federal Government in the 6-month period from March 26, 1996, through September 25, 1996, that are directly attributable to the exercise of powers and authorities conferred by the declaration of a national emergency with respect to Angola (UNITA) are reported to be about $227,000, most of which represents wage and salary costs for Federal personnel. Personnel costs were largely centered in the Department of the Treasury (particularly in the Office of Foreign Assets Control, the U.S. Customs Service, the Office of the Under Secretary for Enforcement, and the Office of the General Counsel) and the Department of State (particularly the Office of Southern African Affairs).

I will continue to report periodically to the Congress on significant developments, pursuant to 50 U.S.C. 1703(c).

SPECIAL ORDERS

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. BARRETT of Nebraska). Under the Speaker's announced policy of May 12, 1995, and under a previous order of the House, the following Members will be recognized for 5 minutes each.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from Florida [Mr. GOSS] is recognized for 5 minutes.

[Mr. GOSS addressed the House. His remarks will appear hereafter in the Extensions of Remarks.]

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from West Virginia [Mr. WISE] is recognized for 5 minutes.

[Mr. WISE addressed the House. His remarks will appear hereafter in the Extensions of Remarks.]

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from Virginia [Mr. WOLF] is recognized for 5 minutes.

[Mr. WOLF addressed the House. His remarks will appear hereafter in the Extensions of Remarks.]

A HUGE CLOUD OVER THIS HOUSE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from Missouri [Mr. VOLKMER] is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. VOLKMER. Mr. Speaker, we have just been through a little charade here in the House. The last two votes on motions to table were purely what I call a charade as part of the total coverup that is going on in the ethics investigation of our Speaker.

You know, they, majority Republicans, were advised that the minority, the gentleman from Michigan [Mr. BONIOR] and the gentleman from Georgia [Mr. LEWIS], are going to be offering a resolution that would require the Committee on Standards of Official Conduct to make public, to give all Members of the House and the public, the press, a copy of the report that was filed back around August 12 with the Committee on Standards of Official Conduct by the special counsel.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, I have a point of order.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Missouri [Mr. VOLKMER] is discussing matters that are not appropriately addressed under the rules of the House.

Mr. VOLKMER. I am just going over what was going on in the House.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair will sustain the point of order inasmuch as the gentleman may not discuss such matters not currently pending.

Mr. VOLKMER. The Speaker, I am just talking about what went on in the House.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman may proceed in order.

Mr. VOLKMER. That is very interesting, very, very interesting that the majority does not even want us to talk about what we just did earlier this afternoon.

When they heard about this resolution that is going to be offered, the gentleman from Georgia, Mr. LINDER—and according to an AP story that was just out today—in an admitted act of retaliation Mr. LINDER introduced a resolution to force the ethics panel to hire an outside counsel to investigate House Minority Leader RICHARD A. GEPHART in an ethics complaint filed 7 months ago that he concealed profits gained through vacation home real estate deals. LINDER says—

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. WALKER. Point of order, Mr. Speaker: The gentleman from Missouri [Mr. VOLKMER] continues to be out of order.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair will sustain the point of order and share at this point the ruling of November 17, 1995:

The prohibition against references in the debate to the official conduct of other Members where such conduct is not under consideration in the House includes reciting the content of a resolution raising a question of the privileges of the House which is no longer pending, having been tabled by the House.

The gentleman may proceed in order.

Mr. VOLKMER. Now the gentleman from Georgia [Mr. LINDER] goes on and says that the Lewis resolution reflected an ongoing and desperate action with a small band of Democrats who refused the ethics process by filing one baseless claim after another.

Now those claims are not baseless, those claims are legitimate. They are based on acts that were performed by the Speaker and that have been filed with complaints, and part of those complaints were investigated by the special counsel, and the special counsel filed the report way back over a month ago. But none of us have seen the report, none of us can get a copy of the report, and on the tabling motion there is no question—

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman continues to be out of order, and it is an embarrassment to the House to have the gentleman continue to disobey the rules knowingly and completely with malice.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair sustains the point of order and requests that the gentleman proceed in order as indicated by the Chair earlier.

Mr. VOLKMER. Mr. Speaker, you know, there is a huge cloud over this House, and it has been here for over a year, almost 2 years, and it is all because of inaction of the Committee on Standards of Official Conduct on the complaints on NEWT GINGRICH, and it has brought discredit on this House.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. WALKER. Point of order Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. WALKER. The gentleman is obviously attempting to simply disobey the rules, and the gentleman obviously has no comport to the Oath of Office that he took earlier in this Congress and, you know, is embarrassing the House with his present disobeying of the rules, and I insist on my point of order.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The point of order by the gentleman is sustained, and the Chair would remind the gentleman from Missouri that he may not speak to matters which are now under consideration by the Committee on Standards of Official Conduct or to the motivation of Members who bring questions before the House.

Mr. VOLKMER. I appreciate the ruling of the Chair, and it is very apparent to me and, I hope, to Members of this House that the majority does not want any of the minority, anybody, talking about ethics questions on the floor of the House. They just do not want us to discuss it. They want to keep it secret, they do not want anybody to know anything about it, they want it all to go away until after the election.

Well, there are those of us who feel that we in this House of Representatives, which has been a stalwart in the world as far as democracy is concerned, have a right to voice our opinion on the floor of the House on this subject because we feel that this subject is one that has to do with the image of the people, how the people look at the United States House of Representatives.

I do not think that the public really appreciates a House of Representatives
